POTLUCK PRIDE

Shabbat Dinner

JULY 18TH
6PM KABBALAT SHABBAT SERVICE
7:30 PM POTLUCK AT TEMPLE OHEV SHOLOM

Temple Ohav Sholom and Beth El Temple invite you to celebrate our diverse communities as we join together for a fun-filled vegetarian potluck Pride Shabbat dinner. This event is open to everyone!

Now Hiring: Jewish Educators for 2025–26 Join the Ohav Sholom Learning Community

Temple Ohav Sholom, a warm and inclusive Reform synagogue, is hiring two teachers to join our Sunday morning education program for the 2025–26 school year — and we may also be adding a Hebrew tutoring role.

Schedule:

- Sundays, 9:30am–12:00pm – 25 sessions throughout the school year
- Optional community gatherings on select Shabbat Friday evenings and Saturday mornings, and for holidays and family programs
- Collaborative, values-based Jewish learning in a warm environment

Positions Available:

- Pre-K Teacher – A nurturing educator who enjoys working with our youngest learners
- Open Grade-Level Teacher – Age group TBD, based on experience and interest
- Potential Hebrew Tutor – We may add a small-group or one-on-one Hebrew tutoring role; let us know if you're interested!

Ideal Candidates:

- Passionate about Jewish learning and working with children
- Experienced in formal or informal educational settings
- Comfortable supporting a range of learning styles
- Collaborative, dependable, and creative

To Apply: Send a short note of interest and a resume or brief outline of your qualifications to school@ohavsholom.org.
